ADDENDUM 1 - Regulations for special cases in accordance with art. 12 Of the Regulation on fees for admission, tuition and completion of studies

1. Withdrawal from education (undergraduate or master's degree) is available by submitting an application request accepted by the faculty management or head of faculty prior to or after enrolment.

a. First year students, admitted on tuition will sign the learning agreement upon confirmation of place. If a student files a registered request to withdraw from studies to the faculty secretariat during the time period from signing the agreement to the day preceding the start of the academic year, tuition payments (fees) will be fully repaid.

b. With the exception of first year students, all students who request to withdraw from studies prior to the beginning of the academic year will receive a full refund of the tuition fee paid in advance for the period remaining from the time of withdrawal, by the end of the academic year.

c. Following the start of the academic year, for registered students attending tuition-based programmes, regardless of the year of study, the tuition due is calculated according to the date of submitting the request for withdrawal as follows:

- If the withdrawal request is filed during the first semester, the tuition fee due will be 50%;
- If the withdrawal request is filed during the second semester the tuition fee due will be 100%;

d. Net cost owed on withdrawal will be calculated as the difference from the overall payable fee to the overall fee paid cumulatively from the start of the academic year, to which will be added any outstanding fees in the preceding academic years.

e. Refund of any amounts of tuition fees will be made only upon request submitted after the withdrawal.

2. Re-enrolment - undergraduate, master's degree, psycho-pedagogical programmes - Level I and Level II at DPPD, students will pay fees in instalments, as follows:

a. re-enrolment cost in addition to any payments due from previous academic years of study except for outstanding exams will be paid before the start of the academic year the re-enrolment is made, within the deadlines set by the faculties for re-enrolled students (upon submission of the re-enrolment application);

b. the tuition (fee) for the academic year in which the re-enrolment is done, the tuition fees, respectively, as follows: fees for subjects not passed in previous years (outstanding exams) and any fees for courses in the subsequent years of study which the student requests to be included in the learning agreement to be paid in the course of the academic year before the start of the exam session for that semester, according to the terms established by the faculties.

- Students from Romania, other countries of the EU, EEA or CH will only pay, for the year of study to which they have re-enrolled, the fees pertaining to the exams they have not passed, which will be added to the tuition fee for the respective academic year and any fees pertaining to the subjects from the following years which the student wishes to include in the study agreement. Tuition fees may be paid by 15 October in full, subject to no discount, or in instalments, i.e. by 5 December for the first semester and by 15 May for the second semester.
- Babeş-Bolyai University students, citizens from states that are not members of the European Union, the European Economic Area as well as the Swiss Confederation, enrolled on tuition from personal funds, will pay the amount of tuition fees (rates) in foreign currency established for the 2023-2024 academic year in accordance with Addendum no. 4.

3. Interruption of studies - undergraduate, master's level - students must meet the requirements resulting from the updating of the curricula, including those relevant to changes in the tuition cost, upon resuming studies. The tuition fees to be paid by students enrolled on tuition that require interruption of studies is determined as follows:

a. After the start of the academic year, the tuition due for enrolled students attending degree programmes on tuition, regardless of the year of study, is calculated based on the date of submitting the request for interruption of studies, as follows:

- If the request for interruption of studies is submitted during the first semester the tuition fee due will be 50%;
- If the request for interruption of studies is submitted during the second semester the tuition cost is payable in full;

b. Net fee payment at the time of interruption of studies is calculated as the difference between the total fee payable and the total fee paid cumulatively from the beginning of the academic year to which any unpaid fees in previous academic years will be added.

4. Student academic mobility from other institutions on tuition places. Students who benefit from academic mobility will comply with the system established for the programme and year of study to which they were transferred. Students will pay the tuition established for the academic year in which the academic mobility was operated.

5. Candidates are entitled to a tuition fee refund or a refund of the instalment paid upon confirmation of place if they shift or are redistributed from a tuition place to a state funded place following the admission exam, as a result of the withdrawal of candidates initially admitted on state funded places, or as a result of supplementing the number of state funded places. A place is considered confirmed if the student pays in advance at least one instalment of the tuition fee and signs the learning agreement. Tuition fee refunds are granted based on a request made to the Faculty within three years of the date of tuition payment.

6. In the event of a shift from state-funded to tuition-based places, students in years 2, 3, and 4 who are on a regular track with no interruptions in their studies will pay the tuition fee equivalent to their class.
